Today, as we honor all Fathers and the unconditional love they have shown their children throughout their years, let us also be thankful for the many ways they have taught us to rely on the Lord, through their own word and example. Fathers always teach us by example that life is not what we do in our day-to-day activities; Life is not what we desire that is earthly; or even what we need that is earthly. We need food, we need water, we need clothing, we need shelter, and we need other things. But those things are not life; those things only serve to sustain the body so that we can learn of what true Life is; that is to be conformed to the image of God. And what better footprints to follow than the love our own father's leave within our hearts...

З радія "Милосердний Самарянин"

19 червня 1910 року вперше в стейті Вашингтон було відзначено День батька. Ініціатором стала Сонора Сمارт. Її мати померла після народження шостої дитини, і батько сам виховав усіх дітей. Сонора спеціальною службою в церкві вирішила відзначити пам'ять свого батька Уільяма. З того часу в цьому стейті третьої неділі червня стали святкувати День батька. Ця ідея подобалася іншим і була підхоплена в інших стейтах, почавши рух за запровадження свята на державному рівні. У 1966 році президент Ліндон Джонсон встановив офіційне святкування Дня Батька третьої неділі червня.

Сьогодні з нагоди Дня Батька нехай кожний і кожна з нас подумає про ту дорогу особу, якій ми завдячуємо своє життя, про свого батька.

Якщо ми ще підрастаємо, ходимо до школи, то пам'ятаймо, що наш батько бажає нам тільки добра, що старається, очевидно разом з нашою мамою, виховувати нас відповідно. Що вони обидвоє нас люблять, і все віддали б щоб нам добре було, щоб нам нічого не бракувало, щоб нам нічого не пошкодило, щоб ми не захворіли, щоб ми не підпали під ворожий вплив, який зміг би відтягнути нас від доброї дороги. Постараймося довіряти їм, слухати їх, щоб, згідно з четвертою Божою заповідю, ми довго жили і добре нам було нам на землі.

Коли наш батько ще між живими, а ми вже дорослі, маємо свої родини і свої клопоти, труднощі і здається не маємо часу, все ж таки постараймося зробити щось доброго для нього, відвідати його, головні коли він вже у старшому віці і хворий. Потішити його, коли це потрібно, поговорити з ним, шукати від нього поради, і то не тільки сьогодні, та ще може на Великдень і на Різдво, або з нагоди його уродин, але часто, що б він тишився тим, що має добрих дітей, які про добро не забувають, які й далі його потребують.

Оскільки наш батько вже упокоївся, згадаймо його сьогодні незлим тихим словом, пригадаймо його теплі, корисні слова поради у потребах, і розради у смутках, і вияснимо у сумнівах. Постараймося наслідувати його приклад. Згадаймо його часто у своїх щоденних молитвах, знаючи, що він постійно згадує нас перед лицем Всевишнього.

Бажаємо Вам усім, дорогі Батьки, щасливого Дня Батька. Хай Господь допомагає Вам у вихованні ваших дітей, і дасть Вам ласку, щоб вони завжди пам'ятали про це, що ви стараетесь їм передавати і так постійно наслідували ваш добрий приклад.

На Многая Вам і Благая Літа!

From the desk of Fr. Ray Palko

June 16, 2013 A.D.

Glory to Jesus Christ! Glory Forever!
Christ is Risen! He is Truly Risen!

Dear _____,
(Your name here, for your very own personal letter)

Whoo hoo... thanks be to God you are getting a letter this week. A few hours ago I wasn't so sure. It's Thursday afternoon as I begin to write, and today "the creek had been seriously rising." When you read this I hope your memories of today won't be of any personal problems caused by the weather. I say this because I know a lot of people from the Midwest to the Mid-Atlantic have been getting deluged, and many are in difficult situations today. Fortunately, we are ok; Noah's Ark has reached ground and the waters have receded.

A giant rain storm come through our area today, and I see from "The Weather Channel" that we haven't been alone. It started with gentle showers in the middle of last night, and from 8am to noon today, it's been almost continuous torrential downpours. It was heavy, heavy rain and not much wind, but definitely giving us more water than we want to see all at once.

That huge amount of water caused "the creek to definitely begin to rise!" It was a nervous morning as we watched the street begin to flood, and then stood, quite helpless, as the water slowly and steadily began creeping up our driveway. Just before it got to the house the rains stopped and the water on the street went away. At one point the town highway trucks appeared and we thought, "OK, it'll be all right now. They'll unplug the drains, or do whatever they need to do." Well, what they did was get out of their trucks, put up signs which read: "Street flooded." Yeah, right. Thanks for telling us! It was a real helpless feeling, and there was nothing we could do except go down the basement and get some things up off the floor. Happily that was a precaution that wasn't necessary. Last time the water was that high, our Chrystyna was a baby. This time she was holding her own babies in the very same spot. "Déjà vu all over again," as the famous Yogi Berra said!

The only real problem we faced was a possible mess in the basement. God bless those people who have had their homes washed away by the rising waters, the powerful winds of tornadoes, and also those who lost their homes in the recent Colorado fires. Talk about helpless... We had nothing to worry about compared to those people!

So now the air is fresh and clear, and it's on to the weekend and Father's Day. "Presents for Daddy!" We'll be praying for all the fathers at our Liturgy on Sunday. May God bless all our Dads, whether they are with us, or have gone on to be with the Lord. I'm sure, even if they are in heaven, they are still guiding us, pointing us in the right direction, and loving us, even as they did when they were with us.

As a Dad, it is a special day and a special joy to celebrate Father's Day and to be with our children as they "honor" us. It is a day of memories, happy and sad. Some will cry this day for their Dads who have reposed or gone away; some Dads will cry for their children who passed away or left the family, especially it is "the first Father's Day" without each other. Looking back, we can always say, "I wish I were a better Father. I wish I'd have done more." Sure, we can always do better in life, but I think most of us can say, "We did, and we do, the best we knew how. We tried, and we try, to be "the best Dad in the whole wide world," as you used to say. We LOVE you kids! We pray every night for your health and salvation. We pray that our good God will bless you, and your children as you go through this life. We pray He will lead you to His heavenly Kingdom where we will live forever in our true home.

I remember the song "Cat's in the Cradle" by Harry Chapin from the '70's. It's about a Dad who was in many ways too busy for his child, and before he knew it the boy was grown, and 'the cat was in the cradle.' "My child arrived just the other day...he came to the world in the usual way...and there were planes to catch and bills to pay...he learned to walk while I was away...and he was talkin' fore I knew it.."

For the things we didn't do, or for the things we could have or should have, done better, but didn't, I know we truly regret. However, like many fathers I am so blessed to be surrounded by my children and their children. A lot of "father stuff" was simply practice for the grandchildren. What a great gift it is to have another chance to get it right!!! ☺

And not only that, but whatever I say about my children, I am even more blessed by all who call me by that awesome name, "Father." Not only has God given me 3 beautiful girls, and so far two excellent sons in law, and six grandchildren, but He has given me countless souls over the past twenty-three years to teach, to guide, to love and to cherish – "My People!" So whatever I say about my physical children, I say also about my spiritual children. I love you; I pray for you; I want to be the "best Father in the whole wide world" for you! I am awed to be called "Father" by you, my Babies and My People! Thank You!

I am truly blessed! Not too many years ago the girls, now grown, gave me a card, as they usually do, along with their great presents. The presents may be used up, gone or forgotten, but the card will forever be with me. On the outside of the card was pictured a little girl of about seven, sitting high up on her father's shoulders. Beneath the picture are the words, "Loved the view; Loved you." Then on the inside, "Still do!" What more could anyone want?! For all my girls, for my wife, who made me a father, for my boys, those beloved "meatheads," my grandchildren and for all of you....I repeat the words of Lou Gehrig when he said, "Today I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth."

Eternal Memory to our Dads who have reposed! Mnohaja Lita to our Dads who are with us! I wish you all a great and pleasant day on this Father's Day 2013. I hope we all can say to our own Dads, wherever they are, "Thank you for being the best Dad in the whole world." I hope all our Dads can say, "Today I consider myself the luckiest man on the face of the earth." We pray that our Fathers will always be a beautiful reflection of our Heavenly Father, He who gives us Life and every good thing! May God bless all our Dads, and may our Holy Lady protect them and all of us.

With the love of our heavenly Abba, Tato, Daddy,

I am humbled and unworthy to be called Father Ray

From "Good Samaritan" Ukr. Radio pr.

The other day my son asked me: What made grandpa such a good dad? There were so many memories that came rushing back to me that I felt like my heart would overflow, and so I shared many wonderful stories in that priceless moment with my son. I went on to tell him that dads do a lot of small things too that make a world of difference, and then I elaborated: They bring around the car when it rains so everyone else can stay dry. They always take the family pictures, which is why they are hardly in them. They play ball with you even after they have worked a ten hour day. They carve turkeys on Thanksgiving, keep the car gassed up, and are not afraid to go into the basement. They mow the lawn, and tighten the clothesline to keep it from sagging. Dad's throw their kids up high over their heads until they are weak from laughter. They listen more than they talk. They tuck you in at night and read you a bedtime story, after they have scared away the boogie man from under your bed. They let you make mistakes and then they teach you how to make amends. They run alongside when you are learning how to ride a bike, and they sit beside you patiently when they are teaching you how to drive their car. Above all, what a father really does that is so important - he shows up for the job in good times and bad times. He is a man who is constantly being observed by his children. They learn from him how to handle adversity, anger, disappointment, and success. He will not laugh at their dreams no matter how impossible they might seem. He will wake up and drive in the middle of the night, when one of his children runs out of gas. He will make unpopular decisions and stand by them. When he is wrong and makes a mistake, he will admit it. He sets the tone for how family members treat one another, and even people who are different from them. By example, a dad can instill a desire to give something back to the community, when its needs are greater than theirs. But mostly, a good father involves himself in his kids' lives, and takes responsibility for who they become. A dad has the potential to be a powerful force in the life of a child – I know, because like many of you, I had a great dad.

Truthfully, a father's love will leave footprints in our heart, and though we may run, walk, stumble, or fly - let us never lose sight of the role our father's play in guiding us on this journey we call life. Today, we honor all Fathers and the unconditional love they have shown their children throughout the years. Whenever I remember my own father and the huge role he played in my life, I am reminded of the words of St. Paul, "... And the greatest of these is love". Today, as we honor and pray for our fathers, let us remember all of the sacrifices they have made and all of the love they have shown us; the lessons in life which they have taught us and the relationships we have forged through their example. I once came across a beautiful passage about a father, which read as follows: "I watched a small man with thick calluses on both hands work fifteen and sixteen hours a day. I saw him once literally bleed from the bottoms of his feet, a man who was uneducated, alone, unable to speak the language, who taught me all I needed to know about faith and hard work by the simple eloquence of his example." As we remember our fathers and godfathers, our grandfathers and even possibly our great grandfathers, let us pray for them and honor them with all our heart. May the love of our Heavenly Father and the protection of the Blessed Mother be with them always...

Playing the Partial Birth Abortion Card

Abortion industry lobbyists today announced that Gov. Cuomo's abortion bill would be modified to include language related to partial-birth abortion. We believe such a change is intended to divert legislators' attention from the real issues related to this bill, namely that it would expand late-term abortion for virtually any reason and would clear the way for the Department of Health to permit non-doctors to perform abortions.

The forthcoming amendment is likely to say something to the effect that nothing in the language of the bill conflicts with the federal partial-birth abortion ban, although it will most assuredly not enshrine such a ban in state law, which is ironic since the stated purpose of the abortion bill is to enshrine federal abortion policy into state law.

Let us be clear: Abortion expansion in New York is not about partial-birth abortion. Partial-birth abortion, or D&X, is one method of abortion used in the second and third trimesters of pregnancy, in which a baby is partially delivered before being killed via a surgical scissors to the base of the skull. It is currently banned under federal law. An amendment to the governor's bill saying that the federal ban would not be affected is legally redundant and pointless, and would not affect the most common and prevailing method of late-term abortion, known as D&E, which is equally brutal and inhumane. In that method, a baby is killed and dismembered while still in her mother's womb, before being vacuumed out.

The Catholic Bishops and the pro-life community object in the strongest terms to any expansion of late-term abortion, regardless of the procedure used. It cannot be said enough that New York is the abortion capital of the country, with one in three pregnancies ending in abortion. We do not need more abortion here.

No legislator should be fooled by further attempts to obfuscate this issue in an effort to pass a bill desperately sought by the abortion industry for its own ideological and financial gain.

The Catholic Conference represents New York State's Bishops in matters of public policy.

Блаженніший Святослав молився зі Святішим Отцем

Владика Йосиф (Мілян): «Маємо амбітний план, тому надіємося на Божу допомогу і підтримку добрих людей»

Під час освячення Патріаршого собору буде освячено центральний престол у храмі, повідомив владика Йосиф (Мілян), голова наглядової ради будівництва собору Воскресіння Христового. Як зазначив єпископ, зараз, зокрема, кладуть підлогу у святині, де й стоятиме центральний престол. Залишається відкритим питання, чи викладатимуть підлогу мармуром у всьому Соборі. Нині вже завершили підлогове опалення, потім заливатимуть стяжку під мармур. «Ми будуємо Собор на століття, тому нашвидкуруч робити не хочеться. Гадаю, після освячення, до зими, ми це реалізуємо».

Як повідомив голова наглядової ради, тепер також розробляють ансамбль вхідних дверей, над дизайном яких працювали кращі українські митці. Окрему увагу приділено території біля Собору. Планується встановити огорожу та в'їзні ворота, поділити територію відповідно до проекту ландшафтного дизайну, викласти бруківку, а також висадити кущі та дерева. «Зробити такий обсяг роботи – це амбітний план, тому надіємося на Божу допомогу і підтримку добрих людей».

Найскладнішим завданням, каже владика Йосиф, виявилася робота над остаточним проектом загального інтер'єру Собору. До обговорення та пропозицій запрошено багато митців, мистецьких майстерень та іконописних груп. Але до єдиного бачення поки не дійшли. Тому вирішили, що вже наступного тижня буде оголошено конкурс на проект інтер'єру. Усі пропозиції повинні бути подані до першого грудня.

Наостанок архиєрей нагадав, що продовжується збір коштів на головний дзвін Собору, який називатиметься «Архистратиг Михаїл». Дзвін уже виливають і він важитиме майже 4 тонни, а вартість його становить 97 тисяч євро. Поки що назбирали тільки 25 тисяч євро. «Сподіваємося, наші миряни посприять тому, що голос цього дзвону скликати тиме всіх до колиски українського християнства, до Києва, і буде вісником освячення Патріаршого собору в Києві».

Fell asleep in the Lord

+Anna Mnych (nee Hnylycia)
(January 22, 1921 - June 9, 2013)

Beloved wife of late Iwan; devoted mother of Stephanie (Mel) Geyer, John (Maggie), late Osyp Mnych and the late Maria (Thomas) Wrzosek, survived by grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Online condolences at www.Pietszak.com.

Anna Mnych, our beloved Baba, was much more than just our grandmother. She has been a source of great joy in our lives, an inspiration to us and everyone who met her, and of course, the best cook we've ever known. She gave great advice, told great jokes, and her wonderful outlook on life was contagious.

Baba could always see the silver lining, even when the dark clouds came, and we learned to follow her optimism.

As we transitioned to adulthood, there came times where we sought Baba's advice. She always told us to be thoughtful but in the end, "Do what makes you happy." We think there's no better way to honor her, than to do so, and we hope that you join us in honoring her by doing the same.

Baba, we'll miss you,

Mike and Dan Geyer
